

National Voter Registration Act

Registering to vote just takes a few minutes and, thanks to the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA), you can easily find registration forms in many places throughout the state. The NVRA was passed by Congress and signed into law by President Clinton in 1993. Also known as the “Motor Voter” law, the NVRA requires the Department of Motor Vehicles and many other government agencies to provide people the opportunity to register to vote. For more information on the NVRA and the Secretary of State’s efforts to assist state agencies and county elections officials in complying with it, go to <http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/>.
